

K-Love adds a positive influence in the state of AR, which is lacking in a lot of our media outlets today. They are activity in promoting community activities by supporting activities that are family friendly. The services provided by K-love are different than similiar media outlets. This station has a community who supports the public interest and is not bias by the woes of negativism that affect me daily. Please support K-love in my community.